UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.

Notice to the Bar. The United States Circuit Court will be held on Monday, the 15th inst., by Judge Shipman, commanding at eleven A. M. The calendar of civil jury causes will be taken up.

KENNETH G. WHITE, Clerk.

Dated Jan. 8, 1872.

De Lunatico Inquirendo.

Yesterday one William Messick was indicted in the United States Circuit Court before Judge Beneon a charge of having forged a name upon a insane at the time he committed the offence imputed to him. A jury was then sworn to try the case, and several witnesses were examined on the question of the sanity or insanity of the accused. It appears that he received a saustroke some years ago, and that since then he has not, as some of the witnesses said, been in his right mind. The case had not cosed at the rising of the Court, and will be resumed.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—IN BANKRUPTCY.

A Discharge Refused—What Constitutes a Fradesman or Merchant—The Necessity of Keeping Proper Books of Account. Yesterday, in the United States District Court, in ne matter of Edward Garrison, a bankrupt, Judge Blatchford rendered the following decision, by which he refuses the discharge of the bankrupt on he ground that he did not keep proper books of ac-which he refuses the discharge of the bankrupt on the ground that he did not keep proper books of account. The Judge says:—

In this case I must refuse a discharge on the third specification filed by the creditors, Smith & Williams, without reference to any other specifications. That specification is, that the bankrups, being a merchant or tradesman, has not, subsequently to the passage of the ack, kept proper books of account. He was a merchant or tradesman. His occupation was that of a stair builder. He bought lumber, nalls and other necessary materials, and by the labor of workmen employed and paid by him for the purpose wrought such materials into stairs for persons who gave him preders to construct such stairs, and received as compensation from such persons a gross price for the less a tradesman because he was also a manufacturer of the stairs, or because he did not resell the immore or other materials in the same state in which he bought them, or because he did not rousell the immore or other materials in the same state in which he books as he kept furnish no intelligible account of his transactions. A large part of the outstanding debts against him, and set forth in his schedules, are debts for lumber bought on credit and used in his business. He testified that he kept ho books except a memorrandum book of men's time; that he has no means of testifying respecting his business for the two years prior to the filing of his perition except his memory, and possibly some paid bills and accounts rendered and some of such memorandum books. His petution was filed on the 30th of December, 156s.—He testifies that he cannot tell what a mount of debts were owing to him, or oy whom, on the 18th of January, 186s, or what amount of debts he owed on that day or to whom. His schedules show debts to the amount of over seven thousand dollars, nearly all of the amount contracted during the year 186s, and nearly all of it for lumber for his business. Persons who buy on credit and sell again in suon wise as to be merchants or as will furnish an intelligible account to their credi-tors of the state and course of their business trans-actions, not leaving such account to be made up from memory or from sources other than such White, for the transfer of 12,732 shares of Eric stock to Heath and Raphael, the English shareholders, was post-coned to Friday next, in consequence of the melan-sholy death of Mr. James Fisk, Jr., who was largely alterested in the matter.

A sequel to the death of Mr. Fisk was the disconinuance resterday of eight railway suits that have been for a long time pending in the courts, and which out for this sudden tragic termination of his which dut for this success of pertinacious protongation shrough a series of years to come. She sued out a writ of inbeas corpus for the custody of the child in his possession. After hearing the argument in the case the Judge took the papers, reserving his decision.

A lively legal tournament was anticipated, but it was an anticipation not realized. No opposition was interposed to the continuance of the prohibition, and it was therefore made permanent and absolute.

Buit Aguinst the Commissioners of Charities and Correction for the Custody of a Child.

Aurora Manahan vs. James Brown et al.—This is a suit brought against the Commissioners of Charities and Correction by the plaintiff to recover the possession of her child, a girl eight years old. The husband of the plaintiff dying, the plaintiff placed her child in the custody of the Commissioners, and the latter in March, 1860, without the mother's content, delivered the child to Mrs. E. W. Perry, a non-resident of the State, who took her to lillinois, and there employed her in an exhibition or circus. The delendants demurred to ine complaint on the ground that it stated no cause of action—a Cenurrer that was sustained by Judge Barnard. The case came up on an appeal from this judgment and was argued at bonsulerabic length. A strong point of the argument for the plaintiff was that children placed in the care of the Commissioners can only be bound but by identures, and that they must be indentured by a citizen of this State or an adjoining State, and pnly to one engaged in farming or some art or useful trade, neither of which provisions of the statutes, it alleged, were compiled with in this caso. SUPREME COURT-TRIAL TERM -PART 2 The Yorkville Police Justiceship.

Before Judge Brady.

Murray va. Coniter.—The trial of this case was resumed yesterday, with the court room, as here-tolore, densely crowded. The additional testimony taken elicited no new feature of interest.

Henry McCann and Henry W. Sawyer, poli clerks of the Twenty-fifth district. Nineteenth ward, acknowledged some of the signatures to the returns as in their handwring and some not.

Gaptain Walling testified that Murray did police duty on Monday and Tuesday of the riots, but that he was missing on Wednesday.

Nelson J. Waterbury, Advocate General on Governor Seymoni's stang gave a nistory of the riots.

Andrew J. White, in the Metropolitan Gas Works, gave account of Murray's whereabouts on Wednesday. They anticipated trouble at the gas works, and Murray and another policeman were asked to assist in profecting them, and did so.

Dr. George W. Jewitt, cauvasser of the Twenty-fifth district, Nineteenth ward, testined that some of the signatures to the returns were his and others not.

Various policemen testified to taking the returns

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.

Motion to Ball Charles Moore, the Alleged Notorious Emigrant Swindler-Conviction of Yesterday morning in the General Sessions coun-resterday morning in the General Sessions coun-sel for Charles Moore, now confined in the Tombs upon a charge of robbing a poor emigrant, made an eloquent appeal for his liberation upon ball. Last month the accused was committed to prison without ball until the District Attorney could procure the attendance of the prosecuting witness, who was in a distant State. The Recorder said he was convinced that Moore kept out of the jurisdiction of the Court while the complainant was detained by the District Attorney, and only made his appear-ance when he was satisfied that the main witness a gainst him could not be found.

Mr. Howe read the certificate of the physician of the City Prison setting forth the fact that Moore was suffering from hemorrhage of the lungs and could not with safety remain longer in prison.

Mr. SULLIVAN, Assistant District Attorney, opposed the motion and informed the Court that strennous efforts were being made by the counsel for the people to secure the attendance of the absent witness and he hoped soon to be able to procure Judge Beprord said—"While I may, as a man, sympathize with the accused in his illness, yet as city Jadge I must say, that as the Recorder committed the accused without bail, therefore, as a matter of corriesy to him, I decline for the moment to bail the accused, out should the Recorder consent to bail the accused, not should the Recorder consent to bail the defendant I will do so at once, bailing him is the amount designated by my colleague. Let the counsel therefore ascertain from the Recorder what he will do in the matter and I will act accordingly. In any event I hope the prisoner may be speedly tried."

Mr. Howe expressed himself perfectly satisfied with the City Judge's disposition of the motion.

A HOTEL THEE CONVICTED.

The only other case of interest disposed of yesterday was a charge of burgiary against Benton B. Bagiey, a gentiel-looking, well-dressed young man. On Carlstmas day he entered a room in—the Sturievant House by a faise key, which was occupied by Mr. E. Owen and family, and was leaving the room with a valuable velvet cloak of Mrs. Gwen's when he was chught by Mr. Owen. When given into the custody of a policeman and searched a bundle of brass keys was found in his pessession, which belonged, he said, to his landady. The accused was defended by Mr. Hummel, who made the best of a baid case. Bagley at one time said he occupied a room at the hotel, and when put upon the stand stated that a friend named Merrifield invited him to dine there and sent him up stairs for his wile's cloak. This defence was "too thin," and the jury, after deliberating for a few moments, rendered a verdict of guilty.

Mr. Stillyan requested the Judge to postpone the sentence for a few days in order, it possible, to find out through Bagley certain facts in reference to other larcenies perpetrated in the Sturievant House.

Judge Bedford said:—Bagley, I believe you to be a regular professional hotel thief. The evidence unquestionably proves this fact. The numerous hotels in this city and the many thousands who reside in them must be protected in their property against men of your profession. As you are believed to be implicated in another hotel robbery, I will remand you for sentence.

implicated in another note: roosery, I will remand you for sentence.

BUBGLARY.

William Brehem, jointly indicted with Thomas McQueen for burgiariously entering the premises of Jacob Bogart on the 14th of December, pleaded guilty to an attempt at burgiary in the third degree, and was sent to the State Prison for two years.

ACCUITTALS.

Frank Kennedy, jointly charged with George Edwards in having stolen on the 18th of December a piece of cloth from the store of Joseph Oppenheimer, No. 3 White street, was tried and acquitted.

William H. Armstrong, indicted for breaking into the premises of John Welsh, 126 Chariton street, on the night of the 28th of December, was also found not guilty by the jury, the evidence falling to sustain the indictment.

THE ALLEGED HARBOR ABUSES.

The Port Captain opened Court in his office in Pearl street yesterday morning, to proceed with the inquiry into the charges brought by a committee of merchanis against Harbor Master Hart, Mr. Bene-dict, counsel for the complaint, asked for an ad-journment on the ground that Lloyd, the witness journment on the ground that Lloyd, the witness under examination, was incapacitated from attending by iliness. Mr. Davis, the defendant's attorney, argued that the case should be proceeded with, as his client was sustaining material inconvenience by its being held over. Mr. Benedict repited with some asperity and a lively row ensued. Captain Jones interfered and asserted the majesty of the law by adjourning the Court until hall-past ten o'clock A. M. to-day.

The following communication has been forwarded to Captain Jones:—

to Captain Jones:—

Sin.—I complain of Daniel Hart, Harbor Master, for improperly attending to the duties of his office in this, that he has demanded money as a consideration for accommodation rendered by said Hart to Mitton Knapp in his business with relation to piers and docks, and received at different times from said Knapp by the hand of William K. Niver the sum of two hundred dollars for such accommodation; and further, he has issued permits in the name of the Captain of the Port for ressels to fle at piers in what is known as the Canal district in the month of Docember, 1870, without any authority therefor.

JANUARY 8, 1872. THE CIRCUS CASUALTY.

The case of J. N. Browne, the lad who was crushed beneath the wheels of a vehicle at the circus, sixty-fifth street and Third avenue, did not take place yesterday afternoon before Coroner Keenan, as was anticipated, owing to the absence of witnesses. The inquest may be neid to-day.

MONPAY, Juff. 8-0 P. M. On 'Charge to day wheat was steady and very duit. The cotton market was strong and higher, in sympathy with the Liverpool dealings.

MONEY EASIER.

The money market was stringent, with the transactions on call almost uniformly as and controlled.

actions on call almost uniformly at 7 per cout, coin, on stocks, and at 7, currency, on government Bands, until about half-past two o'clock, when some of the stock brokers paid 1-32. At three o'clock, however, the inquiry subsided, and lenders pressed balances at 7 a 5 per cent. There is a steady return of currency from the interior noticeable, but mostly in national bank notes, which the banks are unwilling to take on deposit with their present low reserve of egal tenders. Prime paper was quoted 9 a 12 per cent discount.

Foreign exchange was firmer, on the basis of 109% for prime bankers' sixty-day sterling and 109% for sight bills.

GOLD UNSETTLED-109 % A 109 %. The gold market opened strong, and advanced to 100% on a wider agitation of the question of war with Spain, especially after the introduction in Congress of a resolution granting the Cubans belligerent rights. But toward the close of the day a rumor prevailed that the Spanish government had intimated its willingness to apologize for any indig-nity offered the United States in the Fiorida case, and gold gradually settlet back to 109%. course of the market is shown in the table:—

1-32 to 4 per cent for carrying. The operations of the Gold Exchange Bank were as follows:—

on account of January interest, and $215,000 in re-demption of the cailed bonds of '62. GOVERNMENTS STEADY.

The government list was strong at the earier coards, in sympathy with the advance in gold; but boards, in sympathy with the advance in gold; but fell off a trifle later in the day, closing steady, as follows:—United States currency sixes, 115% a 115%; do. sixes, 1881, registered, 114% a 114%; do. do., coupon, 115% a 115%; do. five-twenties, registered, May and November, 110 a 110%; do. do., 1862, coupon, do., 110% a 110%; do. do., 1864, do. do., 110% a 110%; do. do., 112% a 112%; do. do., 1867, registered, January and July, 111% a 111%; do. do., 1865, coupon, do., 110% a 111; do. do. 1113/; do. do., 1865, coupon, do., 1103/ a 111; do. do., 1867, do. do., 1123/ a 1123/; do. do., 1868, do. do., 112% a 112%; do. fives of 1881, funded, registered, 109% a 110; do. do., compon, 109% a 110; do. tenforties, registered, 109% a 109%; do. do., coupon, 109% a 110.

It is stated that the official offer of the new London Syndicate to take $600,000,000 of the new loan was receive I in the European mail to-day and forwarded to Washington. If so, we ought in a day or two to have the exact terms of the proposal. The de-tails so far have been derived from a meagre cable telegram announcing the transmission of the offer.

STOCKS UNSETTLED AND IRREGULAR.

The speculative interest of the stock market largely centred in the course of Erie, as a consequence of the death of James Fisk, who, with all due deference to the sentiment accorded the memory of the dead, was, rightfully or wrongly, credited with being the worst enemy of the Eric Railway and its stockholders. Hence on his sudden demise the investment interest was greatly reassured, while the speculative feeling selected Erie as the immediate subject of a rising speculation. The stock was the first thing dealt in this morning, when there were brokers enough assembled to enable the execution of business, and long before the Board had regularly convened many thousands in face of the greedy appetite for it, there was more of the stock for sale at the opening figures than was wanted. This excess of supply over demand inaugurated a failing market, the price running down 2 per cent, viz:—from 38½ to 36½. The occasion of this sudden and surprising decline is said now to bev. Dr. McGlynn, paster of St. Stephen's Catholic character. The consequence of the defendant's character. The principle of the principal sold by his brokers as a preliminary to making settlements with the executors of his defendant himself was allowed by the Commissioner, under Judge Biatchiord's ruing, to give evidence in his own behalf, and he did so at some length. He positively denied having on the 23d of December has taken two letters from a box in station F and put them in his lat, or cup, as deposed to by one Haggerty, a with lat, or cup, as deposed to by one Haggerty, a with lat, or cup, as deposed to by one Haggerty, a with lat, or cup, as deposed to by one Haggerty, a with lat, or cup, as deposed to by one Haggerty, a with lat, or cup, as deposed to by one Haggerty, as with lat, or cup, as deposed to by one Haggerty, a with lat, or cup, as deposed to by one Haggerty, as with lat, or cup, as deposed to by one Haggerty had not a later than the later and sent is not an accounted by Mr. Hummel, who made the best of a bad case. Bagley at one time said he occupied a room at the hote Sonset Cox had offered his resolution in Congress to grant the Cubans belligerent rights. The uneasiness was reflected in a decline ranging from ½ to 2 per cent. At the close of banking hours the market became steady and firm on the easy terms for money then prevailing, but drifted into dulness and inactivity. Later, again, the rumor was repeated from the Gold Room that Spain was willing to make the amende interest afresh, and eventually of enlisting so much activity on the "bull" side as to induce a rapid recovery in the final business of the day, the upward reaction continuing in the final market on the sidewalk, and taking quotations back to pretty nearly the level from which they commenced their lescent. Erie in this period went up to 37%, and seemed to promise the rise which had been so anx-iously expected all day. Reading, strong from the beginning, readily advanced in this buoyancy and
